

2019 Health Security Act (HB295 / SB279) Index

Topic	Key Sections	Section/Page Number
1. Universal Coverage
	Eligibility: residency requirement	Section 21 A, pp. 36-37
	Employment exemption to residency requirement	Section 21 D, pp. 37-38
	Exemptions: Federal retirees, active-duty and retired military personnel, and TRICARE recipients	Section 21 B, p. 37
	IHS beneficiaries	Section 11 U, p. 23 Section 21 C, p. 37
	Retiree protections	Section 11 U, p. 23 Section 12 N, p. 28 Section 21 E, p. 38 Section 45 A(2), p. 71
	Collective bargaining agreements	Section 42, p. 63
	Phase-in of beneficiaries	Section 17 F, p. 34
	Self-insured plans (ERISA)	Section 11 V, p. 23 Section 12 N, p. 28 Section 40 B, pp. 61-62
	Monitoring of migration to New Mexico	Section 11 Z, p. 24
2. Health Coverage
	Covered health care services not limited to federal and state requirements	Section 17, pp. 33-34
	Long-term care	Section 18, pp. 34-35
	Behavioral health services; parity	Section 19, pp. 35-36
	Supplemental private health insurance allowed	Section 40 A, p. 61 Section 40 C, p. 62
	Health services fiscal analysis assumes coverage afforded to state employees	Section 47 B(2), p. 73
3. Rural Health Care
	Commission geographic representation	Section 6 I, p. 13
	Advisory boards	Section 13, pp. 28-30
	Native American advisory boards	Section 13 A(3), p. 29
	Health care delivery regions	Section 14, pp. 30-31
	Regional councils	Section 15, pp. 31-32
	Supplemental payments/budgets for rural areas (providers and facilities)	Section 14, pp. 30-31 Section 31 B, p. 52 Section 32 B, pp. 53-54
	Capital needs - report	Section 35 G, p. 58
4. Portability
	Out-of-state health care services	Section 33 B-D, pp. 54-55
	Commission authority to negotiate with out-of-state providers/facilities	Section 11 L, p. 20
	Federal and private agreements shall not impair portability and benefit rights or treaty obligations of the federal government	Section 11 U, p. 23
5. Freedom to Choose Providers
	Right to choose providers	Section 25 A, p. 40
	Self-referral	Section 25 E, p. 40

Topic	Key Sections	Section/Page Number
6. Public Accountability
	Commission created	Section 4, p. 6
	Nominating process	Section 5, pp. 6-10
	Commissioners: number, qualifications, and terms	Section 6, pp. 10-14
	General duties	Section 11, pp. 18-26
	Adopt a transition plan	A, p. 18
	Designate a Native American liaison	FF, p. 25
	New Mexico procurement preference	C, p. 18
	Commission authority	Section 12, pp. 26-28
	Open Meetings Act and other public accountability laws	Section 9, pp. 15-16
	Code of conduct	Section 8, p. 15
	No regulations without public notice and hearings	Section 16 B, pp. 32-33
	Provider/health facility advisory boards	Section 13 A(1)-A(2), pp. 28-29
	Native American advisory boards	Section 13 A(3), p. 29
	Consumer, provider, and health facility assistance program	Section 39, pp. 60-61
	Beneficiary rights	Section 27, pp. 42-45
	Provider/health facility rights	Section 29, pp. 48-50
	Independent audits	Section 36, pp. 58-59
	Role of attorney general	Section 28 H, p. 48
7. Cost Containment
	Health Plan budget: cost containment and quality of care	Section 17 D-E, p. 34 Section 30 A, p. 50
	Health Plan's administrative overhead	Section 30 D, pp. 51-52
	Bulk purchasing of pharmaceuticals and other medical equipment and supplies	Section 11 Q, p. 21
	Pharmacy and therapeutics committee	Section 11 R, pp. 21-22
	Capital expenditures	Section 35, pp. 56-58
	Negotiated provider payments	Section 31, pp. 52-53
	Negotiated health facility payments	Section 32, pp. 53-54
	Continuity of payments and interest for late payments to providers and facilities	Section 11 M, p. 20
	Quality of care: provider and health facility practice standards	Section 28, pp. 45-48
8. Fiscal Analysis and Financing
	Co-payments	Section 33 A, p. 54
	Prohibition against balance billing	Section 31 D, p. 53
	Individual premiums and employer contributions: minimum and maximum	Section 47 B(3)-B(4), pp. 73-74
	Role of superintendent of insurance in reviewing premiums	Section 30 B, pp. 50-51
	Lowering of auto insurance and workers' compensation premiums	Section 46, pp. 71-72
	Fiscal analysis report presented to interim committees for consideration by legislature	Section 47 D, p. 74
	Commission reports to legislature	Section 11 W, pp. 23-24 Section 11 GG, p. 26
9. Compliance with Federal Law
	Apply for any necessary federal waivers and seek to maximize federal dollars	Section 11 E, p. 18; T-U, p. 22-23; Y, p. 24